Presentation on Mars Pathfinder Wed. at Space and Rocket Center

A public talk about the Mars Pathfinder mission will be given at noon Wednesday at the Space & Rocket Center. Dr. Robert Anderson, outreach coordinator for the Mars Pathfinder project at NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena, Calif., will make the presentation. He will discuss the Pathfinder, its Sojourner rover, the technology and cost involved, and problems encountered, as well as what has been found. The presentation is free but seating is limited.
